WAlter Titley, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found necessary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Use of Mariners; His Danish Majesty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Pursuance of that Order, the proper Officers sent an Advertisement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, desiring him to transmit the said Advertisement to England, for the Information of the British Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertisement the following is a Translation.

Advertisement.

WHereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships sailing through the Cattegat, is almost washed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, instead of the said wasting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, standing further within the Land at the Distance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the $\frac{\text{21st of January, O. S.}}{\text{1st of February, N. S.}}$ in the ensuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Course through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foresaid Sand-Hill happen to be destroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Case a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, instead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Naples, Dec. 7. On the 30th past, in Consequence of the Pope's Bull for the Suppression of Eleven Convents of Monks of the Order of the Benedictins, the Chief Chaplain of this Kingdom, being properly authorized from Rome, went to the Convent of S^ta^. Maria della Fede, and caused an Inventory and a Consignment to be made of all the Furniture and Effects of that Convent; having directed likewise the same Orders to the respective Bishops of the Kingdom, who, agreeable to their Instructions, suppressed the said Convents, and distributed the Monks amongst the Convents of the Dominicans. On the 4th Instant the Queen of Spain's Birth Day was celebrated at Court with the usual Solemnity. At Noon the Foreign Ministers, the Nobility, and Military Officers, appeared at the Palace in their richest Habits to compliment their Majesties on this Occasion; and, in the Evening, there was an Opera at the Theatre of the Court, and a triple Discharge was made of the Cannon of the Fortresses. Count Policastro, who was banished from this City for Misbehaviour, has obtained the King's Leave to repair here for two Months, on Account of his Health. On the 6th their Majesties and the Royal Family, attended by their respective Retinues and Guards, set out for Caserta, where they propose to pass some Weeks.

Rome, Dec. 11. A few Days ago arrived in this City from Tuscany, M. de Verelst, the late Envoy from the States General at the Court of Turin, on his Journey to that of Naples with the same Character. Last Week Cardinal Landi arrived here from Benevento, with a Design to renounce that Bishoprick, and it is said M. Pacha is to succeed him.

Florence, Dec. 17. On the 4th Instant Mr. Acton, Commodore of the Emperor's three Ships of War, arrived here from Porto Ferraio, and has since had several Conferences with Count Richecourt, relating to Naval Affairs. On the 8th the Emperor's Name Day was celebrated here with the usual Solemnity; on which Occasion the Foreign Ministers, the Nobility, and Military Officers, appeared in their rich Habits; and, in the Evening, the usual Fireworks were played off, and the Cannon of the Castles were fired.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Die Jovis, 14° Novembris, 1751.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, approach Your Throne with Hearts full of that Zeal and Affection for Your Person and Government, which become the most faithful Subjects to the best of Kings.

We beg Leave, in the first Place, to return Your Majesty our humble Thanks for Your most gracious Speech from the Throne; in which You have, with so much Goodness, expressed Your Care of our Welfare, and Your Delight in our Happiness. Justice, as well as Gratitude, calls upon us to acknowledge the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under Your Majesty's auspicious Government; and that the Continuance of the Publick Tranquillity, the prosperous Situation of Your Kingdoms, the flourishing Condition of our Commerce, and the Opportunity, which these Circumstances have afforded, for the reducing the Burden of the National Interest, are, under the Divine Protection, owing to the wise Measures, which Your Majesty has pursued, both at Home and Abroad, for the true Interests of Your People.

We are fully sensible, that those Measures have not been restrained merely to present Objects, but have been prudently extended to guard against future Evils and Dangers. In this Light we consider the Treaty lately concluded by Your Majesty with the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony; the good Effects of which, will, we hope, be fully answerable to Your great and salutary Views.

The Death of the Prince of Orange, a Prince so nearly allied to Your Majesty, and of such Importance to the Common Cause, has given us great Concern. But it is a real Satisfaction to us, that this unfortunate Event has been attended with no ill Consequence to the State of Affairs in Holland; whose Security and Welfare we conſider as intimately connected with our own. The Support of that Government, upon the Settlement which had been before happily eſtabliſhed, and the cordial Aſſurances which Your Majeſty has received from the States General, give us the greateſt Pleaſure; and confirm us in that Reſolution, which we have long adhered to, of maintaining and cultivating the ſtricteſt Union and Friendſhip with that Proteſtant Republic.

769865A

We acknowledge, with all Thankfulneſs, the Paternal Regard which Your Majeſty has ſhewn for Your People, in publickly declaring Your juſt Reſentment againſt thoſe audacious Crimes of Robbery and Violence, which, in Defiance of the Laws, are now grown to ſuch an Exceſs, particularly in this Part of the Kingdom. We look upon them as a real Nuiſance and Diſhonour to the Nation; and the Increaſe of Irreligion, Idleneſs, Gaming, and all kinds of Licentiouſneſs, has been long lamented by all good Men, as the unhappy Source of this and many other Miſchiefs. All Conſiderations, both religious and political, call upon us to put a Stop to theſe growing Evils; and nothing ſhall be wanting, on our Part, to enforce and ſtrengthen the Laws for puniſhing and ſuppreſſing all ſuch wicked Practices, and to prevent and remedy the pernicious Cauſes of them. Permit us, at the ſame Time, to give Your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that we are zealouſly determined in all our Deliberations, to contribute every Thing in our Power, to the Security and Quiet of Your Majeſty's Government, the Happineſs of Your People, and the Glory of Your Reign.

His MAJESTY's moſt Gracious ANSWER.

My LORDS,

I Thank you very kindly for this dutiful and affectionate Addreſs. The Satisfaction you ſhew in the Meaſures I have taken, both at Home and Abroad, for the Preſervation of the Publick Peace, and for the Advancement of the Intereſts of My People, is very agreeable to Me; and cannot fail of having a good Effect, for promoting thoſe great and ſalutary Views.

FINIS.

THE HUMBLE

ADDRESS

OF THE

Houſe of Commons

TO THE KING.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to return Your Majeſty our moſt hearty Thanks for Your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne.

Permit us, Sir, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to expreſs our lively and due Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy under Your Majeſty's wiſe and juſt Government, and our well grounded Confidence, that Your Majeſty's Views are, and ever will be, directed to no other End, than to ſecure and improve the preſent flouriſhing Condition of Your Kingdoms. The Regard Your Majeſty is pleaſed to teſtify for the Advancement of our Trade and Manufactures, as it is a ſignal Inſtance of Your Majeſty's conſtant and univerſal Attention to the Welfare of Your Subjects, demands our ſincereſt Acknowledgments; and it cannot but be Matter of the higheſt Satisfaction to us, that the Proviſions made for that Purpoſe by this Parliament, in purſuance of Your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Recommendation, have produced the deſired Effect.

We unfeignedly aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will readily concur in all ſuch Meaſures, as tend to ſecure the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Peace to us, by eſtabliſhing more firmly the General Tranquillity in Europe.

Affected with the deepeſt Concern, we condole with Your Majeſty on the unfortunate Event of the Death of the Prince of Orange; but, at the ſame Time, beg Leave to expreſs the great Conſolation we feel from the ſtrong Aſſurances, given to Your Majeſty, on this Occaſion by the States General of the United Provinces, which leave us no room to doubt of the Continuance of that ſtrict Union and Friendſhip, ſo eſſential to the Intereſts of both Countries.

Your faithful Commons with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs promiſe to grant to Your Majeſty ſuch Supplies, as may enable Your Majeſty to fulfil the Engagements, and anſwer the ſeveral Services, which ſhall be found neceſſary for the Public Good.

We cannot ſufficiently acknowledge Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in recommending to our Conſideration the Miſchiefs and Diſhonour, which ariſe to this Nation from the audacious Crimes of Robbery and Violence, ſo notorious of late to all the World; and we humbly aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will ſeriouſly proceed in reviſing and enforcing ſuch Laws, as may contribute to ſuppreſs thoſe Enormities, by diſcouraging Irreligion, Idleneſs, Gaming, and Immorality, by promoting Induſtry, and eſtabliſhing Good Order amongſt Your Majeſty's Subjects.

BY Virtue of an Order of the Houſe of Commons, I do appoint Thomas Cox, John Whiſton, Charles Bathurſt, and Thomas Trye, to print this Addreſs; and that no other Perſon do preſume to print the ſame.
